Option B. SAS: Concentration Requirements

Requirements, 11 half-courses (13 half-courses for Honors)

1. Required Courses: Four half-courses of language instruction in Hindi-Urdu, Sanskrit, Tamil, or Tibetan. Six additional half-courses in the field or in related subjects as approved by the Director of Undergraduate Studies, including a basic survey course on South Asia which must be taken by the end of the sophomore year.

2. Tutorials: South Asian Studies 98 (one term), individual, or group tutorial. Letter-graded. Honors candidates must also take a full year senior tutorial (South Asian Studies 99) leading to a thesis.

3. Thesis: Required for Honors candidates only.

4. General Examination: Required for Honors candidates only; Honors candidates must take an oral examination based on concentration work and thesis.

5. Other Information: In special cases a student may propose another language if that language is directly related to South Asian Studies and it is studied in an academic program approved by the department. In such cases the course requirements will be adjusted appropriately. One half-course, taken pass/fail or SAT/UNS, may be counted for concentration credit if taught by a department faculty member and approved by the Director of Undergraduate Studies.
